Wine Notes – 2019 Domaine du Mont Épin Macon-Peronne

Domaine du Mont Épin's Macon-Peronne vineyards comprise a contiguous plot midway up the western slope of the eponymous hill. The pebbly clay and limestone soils and a steady slope allow constant and consistent drainage. The vineyard is also sheltered by the forested summit of Mont Épin, which combines with a western exposure to allow for late ripening of the grapes. The result is an open, golden-colored, fruit-inflected nose with notes of white fruits, citrus and jasmine fresh. The full and round taste profile and harmonious finish make this immediately accessible.
